

Holy Name Society to Present Pancake Breakfast on Sunday

PLANNING SESSION . . . Nativity Church Holy Name Society officers discuss plans for today's "Family Pancake Breakfast." From left are James Maher, Paul McDonald, President Richard Olson, and Bill Camp. The breakfast will be served in the parish auditorium from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The second annual "Family Pancake Breakfast," sponsored by the Holy Name Society of Nativity Catholic Church, will be presented in the parish auditorium, Engracia and Arlington avenues, today from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m., Richard Olson, president of the society, announced.

William Fredericks has been named as the program general chairman. The other committee members are Pat Garvey, tickets and finance; Norris Carstenson, procurement; James Fornelli, chef; Paul McDonald and James Maher, manpower; Bill Camp, table arrangement and clean-up; and Robert Koonz, serving.

Olson has also revealed plans for a Holy Name Society-sponsored Harvest Ball to be presented on Saturday, Nov. 17. Committee chairmen for the dinner-dance will be announced at a later date.

New society members Major Arthur DuPuis, Donald

Krauser, John Hansen, Sam Talluta, Paul Sweeney, Ralph Grippo, Lyle E. Freckleton, and Steven Olivarez were greeted by Olson during last Sunday's meeting.

Police Thursday night arrested an 18- and two 17-year-old boys on charges of burglary after a pair of bolt cutters were found on the front seat of their car parked in the downtown area.

One of the youths admitted they broke into newspaper racks on El Prado Avenue.

A police patrol unit saw the three youths about 10:30 in an alley but they ran when approached by the officers. Officers returned to a car which they had under surveillance earlier and found a pair of bolt cutters on the front seat.

About 12:45 a.m. Friday police saw two youths sneaking through the shadows of buildings but the boys again turned and ran as they approached their vehicle.

Police chased them and found the three suspects hiding between a wall and a building at the rear of the unemployment office.

Juvenile Hall in Area Needs Votes

One of the top projects provided for in Proposition "A"—the $17 million bond issue for Juvenile Facilities on the Nov. 6 ballot—is the South Bay Juvenile Hall, according to Supervisor Ernest E. Debbs and Kenneth Hahn, co-chairmen for a "Yes on A" committee.

The South Bay center would include court and detention facilities. Overcrowded conditions today are forcing boys and girls to sleep on the floor as they seek assistance in the road back to a useful place in the community.

Voters League Plans Ballot Measure Talks

To inform voters of the issues involved on the November ballot members of the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance will sponsor a public meeting at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 30, at the Torrance First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado. The meeting is open to the general public.

Purpose of the meeting is to present arguments for and against each of the proposed measures. Representatives of the league's speakers bureau are appearing before groups throughout the community to discuss the pros and cons on the ballot measures.

As a further voters' service the league has printed a digest of the measures and the arguments for and against them. Persons interested in obtaining capsule pros and cons have been asked to contact Mrs. William Geissert, FR 5-5531. Speakers at the ballot measure meeting include Mrs. Ernest Knapp, Mrs. Austin Woodward, and Mrs. Irving Boxer.

Selover Named To Committee

Frank Selover of Torrance has been named representative from the 17th Congressional District on the Reagan for Controller committee, according to G. Harvey Mydland, Los Angeles County chairman. Selover will join representatives of other Southland areas in seeking the election of Republican Bruce Reagan to the office.
